Wodehouse, P. G.: Books

"Laughing Gas" is a rather appropriate title for a work by P.G. Wodehouse, since most, if not all, of his novels and short stories will have readers laughing out loud. This delightful romp set in 1930s Hollywood is no different, although not quite on par with some of his other works. Perhaps it is because the plot revolves around an entirely implausible event or perhaps it winds up being far ...
