Maslaha or maslahah is a concept in shari'ah regarded as a basis of law. It forms a part of extended methodological principles of Islamic jurisprudence, and denotes prohibition or permission of a thing according to necessity and particular circumstances, on the basis of whether it serves the public interest of the Muslim community. In principle, maslaha is invoked particularly in cases that are not regulated by the Qur'an, the Sunnah, or qiyas. The concept is acknowledged and employed to varying
